NEWS FROM SOUTHSIDE

Charges of Burglary Preferred Against Five Men and a Boy.

THE COMMITTEE WON'T TALK

Admit Receiving Communication From Inmate of Alms-house—Other Items.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch. No. 1112 Hull Street.

A serious charge of burglary has been brought against John Bunyan Dunnivant, Luther Gregory, Bernard Burke, Frank Peters, Russell Farmer and Wesley Reams. The charge was preferred by William Westcott, watchman of the Standard Cotton Mills, who states that he saw Reams enter a window of the mills, having been put through by Dunnivant, after they had broken two bars of the window. Westcott said that he saw them in time to prevent their securing anything. He notified Policeman Waymack, who put the men under arrest. The first three men were placed in the Manchester police station; Russell Farmer has been summoned and Reams is still at large. The last is said to be a mere boy, about twelve or fourteen years of age.

The prisoners claim that they went down to the mills to shoot craps, but did not do so, and that Reams was not of the party, having gone down separately. They say that Reams was called into the mills by Westcott, who later caused him to be arrested for breaking in. The case promises interesting developments.

Mr. R. V. Owens, vice-chairman of the Alms-house Committee, said last night in reference to the executive meeting held Wednesday night, that a communication was addressed to the chairman of the committee, and that he as temporary chairman did not feel at liberty to discuss the matter. He said that he was the only one in possession of the facts and that nothing would be divulged until the next meeting, Monday night, when everything relating to the subject would be made public. He would say nothing further in connection with the affair.

Another member of the committee, said that the matter was not of such serious import as is generally supposed. The sub-committee met yesterday afternoon, but of what passed in the meeting nothing is known.

AT THE THEATRES

Richard Carle will appear in "The Tenderfoot," the new aquatic comedy at the Academy to-night and to-morrow, matinee and night.

This production was the marked triumph of the New York and Chicago seasons, and will be presented here, the advance agent says, even to the most minute detail, as in the Metropolitan. The cast includes three exceptions, will be identical with that seen in the New York and Chicago presentations, adds Richard Carle, who has seen it. The "Tenderfoot" those who have seen it are enthusiastic in its praise, and claim for it an originality that is marked and impressive. The book by Mr. Carle is full of humor and without the least tinge of vulgarity. The score, by H. L. Heartz, is beautiful and sprightly. The cast includes, besides Mr. Carle himself, the following well known people: Edmund Stanley, Henry Norman, William Reek, Charles Morgan, Frances Knight, Noble Lynch, Beatrice McKenzie and Mirra Courtney.

The company is large and includes a chorus and is remarkable for its beautiful girls.

The following criticism from the Norfolk Ledger of the play to be seen at the Bijou next week, "Why He Divorced Her," may be of interest.

A play quite as large as that of Monday night saw "Why He Divorced Her," the melodrama at the Bijou, last night. The play is handsomely staged and is well presented by an evenly balanced company. Like most plays of this kind its story is improbable. The audience does not seem to care for the "whys" and "wherefores," they only want to see the villain punished, and the hero and heroine get the best of him.

THE TROOPS WITHDRAWN

The Situation in Berkeley Has Become Normal Again.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., October 27.—The situation in Berkeley has become normal, and all troops sent there the day after Blount was taken from jail and killed were withdrawn to-day. The action of the town council in authorizing Mayor Allen to offer a reward of $50 for the apprehension of the players of the negro has had the effect of causing people who seem to know things to shut up like clams, and this silence has been made more effective by the action of the town authorities in tracing newspaper reports to their source, whenever possible, and in calling the people who gave the news up for explanations.

A determined effort is being made to catch the murderers of the negro, but up to this time the progress made by the detectives having the matter in charge is not very great.

M. Snyder, proprietor of a second-hand clothing store on lower Church Street, was fined $50 and costs in Police Court this morning for violating the health board order prohibiting the importation of cast-off clothes. He appealed to the Corporation Court. The old clothes came to Snyder marked "dry goods."

Luther and Holmes Hendrickson, eleven and nine years old, sons of Joseph Hendrickson, were taken to the State Reformatory to-day when a guard was about to take them to the State Reformatory. The lady appeared at the Mayor's office accompanied by her sister. The woman told the Mayor that since the death of their mother, the boys had had no restraining influence, and roamed at will. They fell in with bad company and had been tempted into mischief. She said it would be impossible for her to take proper care of them, and reluctantly consented to their removal to the institution. The youngsters made a hard struggle, but were finally taken away.

Reached an Advanced Age.

Mrs. Jero Witherspoon, wife of the pastor of Grace Street Presbyterian Church, received a telegram Wednesday afternoon from Okolona, Miss., her former home, announcing the death of her mother, Mr. R. A. Murdoch. He had reached the age of eighty-two, and until the past year had been in excellent health.

CYCLONE SAMUEL'S WOES

Full of Battle Scars—Is Up Against It Now.

"I have wounds all over me, won in all the great battles from Waterloo to the third battle of Manassas," said Cyclone Samuel, but the real fight is over now, and he is against it of landing the owners of slaves in Hampton county.

"Of the 7,522,121 dogs in the county, only 24 have tags. I am going to get Judge Scott in a fix a day to hear my complaints about delinquents, and then look out."

Then the Cyclone told how he had seized a horse for a debt and placed it in the county jail yard, and how somebody took the horse loose, and how it "wandered" back to the stable with a rope around its neck and somebody on the other end of the rope.

"I'll make me a joke in Hampton," he said, "but I'll show 'em."

MAYOR'S SALARY.

Very Likely Pass.

The ordinance fixing the salary of the Mayor at $3,600 will be up for action at the next meeting of the Council, and will very likely be adopted. It is believed to the Board of Finance, though there is some opposition at work in the Board.

The ordinance has been favorably reported from the Committee on Finance and Charter, Ordinances and Reforms.
